- good but their system is the worst. Guess I'll be jobless since they don't notify you when you're "fired".
27. Lol it assigned me the job as I was 11 miles and 25 minutes away
 28. Photo of CVS recording shows that the dasher did in fact deliver her food, what a scumbag, she needs to get fired from CVS
 29. Handed order to person yesterday and now today i got reported for not delivering it.
 30. LPT: show your insulated bag in every picture. That way customers can't lie and get you fired for not using a bag. (It's possible!)
 31. 4K+ deliveries, I rarely take a photo. Am I playing with fire?
 32. I'm a 5.0 customer rating I was late 13 minutes to the store and their reviewing for deactivating no other issues before any input?
 33. Contact Violations for being late
 34. Extremely late contract violation
 35. 11 min. Late to the store is extreme?
 36. if I select "not made until I arrived" or those options, can I still get penalized for being late to a delivery?
 37. Is there a way to find out which one I was late on? I've never stopped for anything and I'm still new at this.
 38. Are order extremely late likely generated by either restaurant in addition to customer complaints?
 39. How long do reviews take? I was late grabbing an order because of traffic but now the app just brings this up so I can't dash anymore. 1st violation btw
 40. Should DoorDash compensate drivers for unexpected 20-30 minute delays such as late-night drivethrus?
 41. I got a contract violation for being 14 minutes late to store
 42. Why are restaurants consistently allowed to be 15+ minutes late
 43. Doordash doesn't have a "waiting for your order?" option for some merchants anymore? Both of these pick ups are late since I got the order at 10:52 but I can't even say that Chipotle is still working on their orders?
 44. Got a report for an order that was late.
 45. Now being late to store by 10 minutes is a contract violation ?? Wtf is this !!!
